Summary: Tough race, but think there's same real value here with Orient Line, who as I mentioned earlier is our best value of the day. Hasn't won in nearly two years but is building towards a victory and drops significantly in class while staying at a winnable weight of 56kg. Patrick Moloney has ridden him in both his previous wins. Cannyescent looked like he needed the run at 1400m and drops back to 1300m here and will be competitive. Coram is busting for a win, something he hasn't done for 18 months, but this could be his day. Broadway and First has been winning, and by big margins, including over this track and distance two back. Has to be included.
