While the banker bet offers players the best return, even after accounting for the 5% commission, winning around 45% of the time (with an eight-deck shoe), and holding a house edge of 1.06% (one of the better bets in the casino), the player wager holds a house edge of about 1.24% and is only minimally less likely to win. I think this casino has had its day. I think their really grabbing ppl in by their free cash!! It kept booting me out.. id have to re sign in and it was quite annoying. Although i like yhe fames but its very atari games if you know what im getting at. Free spins were quiet and when i did it paid poorly or id be in the free spibs and kept booting me out!! The cashier didnt even wish me luvk and i asked how his day was.. but he was very abrupt and sent me on my merrh way ooooookay then!! So im not saying dont play at this cadino maybe someone have better luck than me or gets a rep who'll actually greet you can you warmly so thanks BFCL as always To sum up our Slots of Vegas casino review, we can say that this online casino provides a well-rounded, entertaining gambling experience. Moreover, we can assure you, it is one of the best US online casinos out there. The website's design can be slightly overwhelming at times, but the navigation highlights the most important things on its main menu bar located to the top of the page, and other related things can be found under the main menu items. Slots of Vegas also offers comprehensive 24/7 customer support, with FAQ articles for quick questions and live chat and customer support phone lines for questions that are more complex.
