show bets are the backbone of horse racing. First, it's important to understand what those three terms mean. Obviously, a horse that wins a race is the one that finishes first. The horse that finishes second is the one who "places," while the horse in third is the one who "shows." As a group, the horses in the top three are considered to be the ones that were "in the money." Another reason that the two parties selected to partner up is because Genius Sports has agreed to become the official data parent of Basketball Australia.
