For example, in a match between the Brisbane and Newcastle – they list the Roar at 1.61 odds to win, whilst the Jets list at 5.50 to get the win. The odd of the football match ending in a draw is 3.75. The various odds reflect the amount of money returned on every dollar bet, as the total payout of the bet equals the amount wagered * the decimal odds. Thus, if you bet on Newcastle to win, you receive $5.50 for every dollar bet. Likewise, a bet placed on Brisbane pays $1.61 for every dollar bet if they are victorious in the match. If the match finishes in a draw and you have bet such a thing, you earn $3.75 per dollar wagered on the draw. The second runner-up was Tabcorp at 20% and William Hill ranking third with 15%. My friends all raved on about how lucky I was to have such a top of the line Smartphone, but in all honesty, trying to figure out how it worked made me feel a little less than smart. That all changed when I was stuck on a particularly long flight for a business trip, and with nothing else to do, I decided to explore the details of my phone. I couldn't believe all the things that I could do on there, and when I discovered the apps, then my love for the mobile was born.

Generally dim and unhappy looking, the game recreates the atmosphere of genuine Frankenstein. You'll find the video effects fascinating, for example, when sever Wilds are triggered, they produce a thread of electric current. Audio effects deserve special compliments, for they make the whole picture even more creepy and close to the original: when you click to choose your presets, you hear somebody hitting hard on some kind of a metal door. As though there were a Frankenstein trying to escape from a dungeon...
